I, F. A. Sporle, being duly sworn, state in the matter of the application for a passport for myself, accompanied by Margaret Sporle, executed and sworn to by me under date of 17th of February, 1904, and in explanation of the discrepancy between the signature thereto of myself as Fred A. Sporle, and that of myself as appearing in my naturalization certificate accompanying said application for a passport, that at the time of becoming naturalized it was my custom and practice to sign my name as "Fred Sporle", omitting the middle initial. That subsequent thereto, and having difficulty in the delivery of my mail to me, the same being confused with that of one Fred Sporles, I adopted the practice of signing my name and having my mail addressed as Fred A. Sporle, and since that time it has been my practice and habit to sign my name in full as "Fred A. Sporle."

That I did so sign my name in full to the said application for passport herewith attached and referred to. And I further specifically state that I am the same person who signed said application for a passport, and the same person who was naturalized, as shown by said certificate of naturalization accompanying this application.

Dated at Waterloo, Iowa, this 26th day of February, A.D. 1904.

YIM JOHN SING being first by me duly sworn, deposes and says: I am 47 years of age and a merchant, residing and doing business at 706 Eddy Street, in the City and County of San Francisco. I came to California 29 years ago. Am registered as a merchant under Certificate _____ .

I am intimately acquainted with Ching Seong. Knew his father and mother well. Knew them while they lived at 8-1/2 Prospect Place. The father was a merchant at 907 Clay Street, doing business under the name of Wo Hop & Co. My intimate acquaintance with them and my frequent visits to their house, places me in a position to state absolutely the fact of the birth to them of a son whom they named Ching Seong, on the 5th day of April, 1880. He was born at 8-1/2 Prospect Place in a front room upstairs; a frame building. There were other people living upstairs.

In 1888 the father and mother went to China and left the boy, who was then about eight years old, in charge of their friends, Ching Sai and his wife, and I know that they sent him to school. First to a Chinese Mission School and after that, the Chinese Public School.

I have known him during all these years from his infancy and I am now his partner in business in this City under the firm name of Wo Hop & Co., and have been since 1899. I was formerly in the shoe manufacturing business at 719--721 Sacramento Street, under the firm name of Keong Sing & Co., until I went in with Wo Hop & Co.

this 20th day of February, 1904.

I was in the City of San Francisco on the day of his birth. I was in the house at the time of his birth and have had charge of him for the years heretofore named, and have seen him grow up to manhood, and he is now in business as a merchant under the firm name of Wo Hop & Co., of which said business he is a partner and manager. I was registered as a merchant.
